“Upstate NY Touring Band Announces New Lineup”

Rochester, New York – "Music Of The Stars", a seven-piece tribute band based in Rochester, recently added three musicians with years of performing and touring experience to their lineup. The band has been performing throughout the United States since 2016, at casinos, hotels, corporate events, concerts and private functions.

Frank Shrouf, lead vocalist and founder, announced; "We're very excited to have Rhonda Federation, an outstanding vocalist with an amazing voice, join us. She has toured nationally and internationally. She entertained American troops in Japan, performed at three Super bowls, opened for Gladys Knight and the Pips, The Doobie Brothers and Natalie Cole. Her repertoire includes songs that few vocalists can perform. Jon Dretto is a young guitarist with an incredible resume at only twenty-two. He's performed all over the US and Canada at venues like the House of Blues in L.A., B.B. King's in Nashville, multiple times in Calgary and the 100th Grey Cup Football Gala at Rogers Centre in Toronto. Bassman Willie Lopez is a Western New York institution. With years of performing and touring experience, his hard driving style, along with drummer Fabian Provenza, anchors the band's sound."

Rounding out the lineup are veterans Karl LaPorta on piano and vocals and Peter Riccardi on keyboards and synths. Music Of The Stars performs songs by international artists like Bee Gees, Elton John, Beatles, Neil Diamond, Tom Jones, Elvis, Tina Turner, Whitney and Celine to name a few.

Frank Shrouf notes; “We’re not just a tribute band. We don't dress in costumes. It's about the music. We honor the artists and their songs.”
